

North American Working Parties Steering Committee

Working Parties of the North American WP Project

Wednesday June 15 and Thursday June 16, 2016
Prior to the American Psychoanalytic Association
105th Annual Meeting in Chicago

Sites:

Palmer House, Chicago (CCM, ETE, IP, SPTT)

Co-Sponsored by the Contemporary Freudian Society, and the Canadian Psychoanalytic Society

Cost: $175

$146 for Initiating Psychoanalysis

$120 for Candidates

Deadline to register is May 15, 2016

Sorry, no refunds

All analysts and candidates in psychoanalytic training are invited to participate in Clinical Working Parties: “Comparative Clinical Methods” (CCM), “End of Training Evaluation: The Mind of the Supervisor” (ETE), “Initiating Psychoanalysis” (IP), and “Specificity of Psychoanalytic Treatment Today” (SPTT)

For descriptions of each Working Party and for registration information go to:

<http://www.robertwhitemd.com/NAWP.html>

Working party groups explore the psychoanalytic process using detailed session notes from experienced presenters, applying specific and new methods to approach the clinical material. Groups are led by trained moderators and co-moderators from North America and Europe. Participants have said that after participation, they return to their practices with a deeper understanding of their work as psychoanalysts.

Space is Limited

Group Schedule

Comparative Clinical Methods

Wednesday, June 15 4:00 PM - 8:00 PM

Thursday, June 16 10:00 AM - 6:00 PM

End of Training Evaluation

Wednesday, June 15 4:00 PM - 8:00 PM

Thursday, June 16 10:00 AM - 6:00 PM

Initiating Psychoanalysis

Thursday, June 16 1:00 PM – 5:30 PM

Specificity of Psychoanalytic Treatment Today

Wednesday, June 15 4:00 PM - 8:00 PM

Thursday, June 16 10:00 AM - 6:00 PM

Register on-line

<http://en.psychoanalysis.ca/north-american-clinical-working-parties-registration/>