

Canadian Psychoanalytic Society
7000 Côte-des-Neiges
Montréal, Québec
H3S 2C1
514.738.6105

Société canadienne de PSYCHANALYSE
Canadian PSYCHOANALYTIC Society

For Immediate Release

November 17, 2023

Canadian Psychoanalytic Society Launches Podcast

(Montreal, PQ) The Canadian Psychoanalytic Society is thrilled to unveil its latest endeavor – a brand new podcast, "Conversations in Psychoanalysis Today," hosted by the dynamic Toronto psychoanalyst, Karen Dougherty (RP; TPS; FIPA).

Dive into captivating discussions as psychoanalysts engage with a diverse array of guests, including analysts, academics, artists, politicians, writers, and many more, from all corners of Canada and beyond. Tune in for riveting insights, revelations, epiphanies, and some very funny moments, accessible via the CPS: website <https://www.en.psychoanalysis.ca/podcast/>

New episodes will drop bi-monthly, so mark your calendars for a regular dose of thought-provoking content. In Episode One, be prepared for a unique treat with award-winning documentary filmmaker Alan Zweig as he delves into his "accidentally psychoanalytic" Mirror Trilogy and discusses his current project on suicide.

Episode Two brings a stimulating conversation with psychoanalyst and philosopher Fadi Abou-Rihan exploring his latest acclaimed book, Finding Winnicott: Philosophical Encounters with the Psychoanalytic. Fadi's work is an important contribution to the field, deepening and complicating Winnicott's thinking about subjectivity, time, language, and play.

Don't miss out on this lively journey into the fascinating world of psychoanalysis.

About the Team

The "Conversations in Psychoanalysis Today" creative team comprises the members of the CPS website Committee, Dr. Rukhsana Bukhari (MD, FIPA), Batool Batalvi (RP, FIPA), and Karen Dougherty (RP, FIPA).

About the Host

Karen Dougherty is a psychoanalyst, Registered Psychotherapist, writer, filmmaker, and journalist based in Amaranth, Ontario. She is a lecturer at the Toronto Institute of Psychoanalysis, the ATPPP, and the FPP, as well as co-chair of the TPS Extension Course Committee.

Send feedback and suggestions to karen@karendougherty.ca